FRENCH COMMANDER SAYS THE WALLA WALLA WAS AT FAULT

Declares That the Max Had Her Lights Burning Brightly at Time of Collision.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—The official investigation into the cause of the collision between the steamer Walla Walla and the French bark Max off Cape Mendocino, on the morning of January 2, was commenced this morning in the Federal building before O. A. Bolles and J. K. Bulger, local inspectors of boilers, steam and sail vessels.

The first witness examined was Captain Benoist of the Max, who submitted a written statement to the effect that at the time of the accident his mate, Emile Ignace, was on watch; that there was no fog, and that there was a fairly strong wind from the south-southeast.

About 3:40 A. M., the lookout reported the lights on a steamer on the starboard bow. The mate thereupon notified him, and he went up on deck, and seeing the light on Cape Mendocino and those of the steamer, the witness went into his cabin to dress.

While he was so engaged the collision occurred.

The lights of his vessel were burning brightly both before and after the accident.

Immediately after the Max struck the steamer, the name of which he did not learn until he spoke the steamer Columbia the next day, he rushed on deck, and as the fore part of his ship was filling rapidly, he was too busily engaged in issuing orders for the closing of the water-tight compartments to pay any attention to the other vessel.

He ordered a forelight lighted, however, to let the steamer know where he was, but not seeing anything of the latter fifteen minutes after the accident, he concluded that she had made land, and proceeded.

It had been impossible for him to turn about and look for the steamer on account of the damage to his head sails and the direction of the wind.

In conclusion, he stated that he desired to enter a protest against the Walla Walla for having collided with his ship, and that he wished to reserve all rights for damages against the author of the accident.

Through the medium of an interpreter, Captain Benoist was closely interrogated as to the position of his ship by Captain Hall of the Walla Walla with the evident purpose of providing that the Max was off her course at the time of the accident, but the French master insisted that the Max never deviated from her course, and that the Walla Walla deliberately attempted to cross her bows, when it was already too late to do so.

POPE MAY NAME HIM A BISHOP.

Father M'Sweeney is Likely to Be Named
Bishop.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—Much interest is being manifested here concerning the rumored assignment, by Pope Leo, of Bishop Montgomery to be Archbishop of Manila where, it is understood, Bishop Montgomery will act as an intermediary between the Catholic Church and the United States Government in the settlement of pending claims.

The movement, to aid the Government in Americanizing the Islands, by having the church represented there by prominent American Catholic clergymen, is now well under way and this also is regarded here as a significant reason for Bishop Montgomery's promotion.

The fact that Bishop Montgomery is a master of the Spanish language and has had much experience with Spanish people in his diocese of Monterey, a diocese which embraces all of Southern California, will be probably considered by the head of the church in making the nomination, now considered as certain.

It is also said that Bishop Montgomery's successor to the See of Monterey, a diocese which embraces all of Southern California, will be the Rev. Father Thomas M'Sweeney, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church in Oakland and one of the most prominent clergymen on the Pacific Coast.

Father M'Sweeney is about to leave on an extended tour of New Zealand, Australia and the Old World, and he will arrive in Rome during the latter part of March so as to be present there during the Easter or holy week ceremonies. While in Rome Father M'Sweeney expects to have several audiences with His Holiness.

The tour is being made by Father M'Sweeney in the hope that his health will be benefited, as he has not enjoyed his usual vigor lately owing to the great care and attention he has given to one of the largest parishes in the West. The first places visited by the traveler will be the Islands of the South Pacific Ocean, as it is desirable to avoid the Atlantic crossing during the winter.

DEBATE ON THE CANAL BILL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—In anticipation of a vote on the Nicaragua Canal Bill today, there was a large attendance on the floor when the House met. Under the order made yesterday the general debate was to close at 2 o'clock, when the bill was to be read for amendment under the five minute rule.

Mr. Adamson of Georgia, the first speaker today, urged the passage of the Hepburn bill without amendment. He argued that the time had come for action and that equivocation now could only result in delaying the commencement of the canal.

TAKES FULL CHARGE OF SMALLPOX CASES

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Jan. 9.—The Board of Supervisors has ordered that the resident health officer of the town of Bakersfield, E. M. Skillings, take full charge of all cases infected with small-pox, and strict quarantine be made by him. This action was taken in response to an appeal of the people of the infected town for a stricter quarantine. In all cases wherever small pox has existed the quarantine will not be raised until ten days after the last case has been reported cured.

STOCKTON MAN DIES FROM INJURIES.

STOCKTON, Cal., Jan. 9.—Henry Rohrbacher, an old resident of this city, where he has been in the beer bottling business for years, died here this morning at the age of 57. The indirect cause of his death was injuries received in a stage accident over a year ago near Angels Camp, he having never fully recovered.

FAVOR DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Senate Committee on Commerce today authorized a favorable report on Senator Nelson's bill for the creation of an executive department of the Government to be known as the Department of Commerce.

SENATE COMMITTEE AGREES ON A REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The Senate Committee on Military Affairs today unanimously agreed upon a report in the case making charges against Lieutenant Colonel H. O. Heistand, of the Army, which was presented to the Senate by Senator Cockrell of Missouri. The report contains concise statements of the facts in the case as brought out by the inquiry and casting no reflection upon any of the officers of the Government whose names were mentioned in connection with the case.

PATHETIC CASE OF A YOUNG GIRL.

Reason Dethroned
While Planning to Be a Bride.

One of the most unique insane examinations which has ever been held in this county was conducted this morning by Judge Ellsworth and Doctors Medros and Pratt. It resulted in the commitment of the patient, a pretty girl named Elizabeth Schmitter to the insane asylum at Stockton.

The girl is 21 years of age. She has raven hair, dark-brown, laughing eyes, an olive complexion, perfect teeth and pretty features. She is a girl who could command a host of suitors.

She has been married and is now at the residence of Rev. Mr. Kennedy, pastor of the Allendale Church.

Recently she conceived an affection for a resident of Allendale who, only a short time ago, lost his wife by death.

The object of her affection had made no overtures to her, and the fact that she had announced an attachment for him caused him quite an amount of annoyance, compelling him to absent himself from his usual social circles.

A few weeks ago the girl had a dream in which she saw herself walking up the aisle of a church to be married in almost regal style. She carried her exaltation to such a degree that she was remonstrated with by her friends in a gentle manner, who advised her that her conduct would tend to her annoyance.

This aroused a feeling of a different kind, and since then, the girl has been professing religious ardor of the greatest intensity. She has been going to church, and she has been attending to the duties of a bride and the great social event on the asper-paved cathedral of the New Jerusalem.

During the examination there were scenes of amusing, bitter, derisive laughter and loss of expression mingled with ejaculations of "Praise the Lord. All praise be to His name."

The girl is a native of Warrensburg, Mo., where her parents still reside.

In her home in the South the girl displayed the same disposition, but her parents, fearing it was a mental disorder, had sent her among friends.

EXAMINATIONS AT UNIVERSITY.

TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS PRESENT THEMSELVES AT THE COLLEGE.

BERKELEY, Cal., Jan. 9.—The State University opened its doors this morning for the spring term with two hundred students taking matriculation and higher standing examinations.

The registration of all students present members of the University will take place next Monday at Harmon Gymnasium.

Every year the entrance for specials becomes rather a problem, perhaps being that the University is being crowded to accommodate even the regular students.

On Friday, January 17, at 11 o'clock, the first University meeting of the semester will be held in the gymnasium. The speakers for the occasion have not yet been announced.

WILL FIGHT AT BAKERSFIELD.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Jan. 9.—Tim Hegarty of Australia, whose idea of American fighters were rather hazy until he bumped up against Ed. Lavigne at Oakland will arrive in this city next Saturday night for the purpose of going into active training at Crawford and Hoag's roadhouse for a fight with Aurelio Herrera, the local boxer, who had never met defeat up to the time he boxed Terry McGovern in San Francisco.

The bout will be pulled off at the Scribner Opera House on Friday night, January 24. The fight will be for the featherweight championship of the Pacific Coast, and for a purse of $500 with a side bet of a little amount. Harry Corbett, it is stated, will back Hegarty while William Fowler of this city will back plenty of Herrera money. The fight promises to attract a large crowd, as both men are willing, clever boxers.

PISTOLS IN THE COURT AT ALTURAS.

Attorney Raker Spends the Night in the County Jail.

ALTURAS, Cal., Jan. 9.—After a row between Miller and Raker last night, Raker was sent to jail for contempt and remained all night, and when allowed his freedom came into court this morning. When court was called this morning, Attorney Spencer at once moved court that the Sheriff be ordered to search every person in the courtroom and see that none carried weapons. Judge Harrington said he knew of no one carrying weapons in court, and Spencer called his attention to the fact that Mr. Miller drew a revolver on Attorney Raker last night in court. The court said he did not see Miller draw a weapon, and that if any more applause was indulged in as was done last evening he would cause those persons appearing to be removed from the courtroom.

General Post did not reply to defendant's argument, and the motion was denied.

The courtroom was almost deserted this morning and there were but two or three ladies present. The cross-examination of witness John Hutton was continued. The examination was commenced by asking the witness if he was in possession of "Denny" Miller last night. The witness stated he was in possession of A. L. Smith. Mr. Smith was recently appointed bailiff of the court, and the witness was asked if he did not know that Smith was an official of the prosecution. He replied that he did not, and General Post objected to the question on the ground that Smith was not such an official. He stated that he was brought to the court by "Denny" Miller. The witness then stated that when he made his first confession at Stewart Hall in the presence of Simon, Woodmansee, Miller and the Grand Jurors, he told them the reason he had not before made his confession before the Grand Jury and the court was because he was afraid some of the lynchers or some of the people from Lookout would kill him. Miller and Woodmansee told him that he need not be afraid as he would be protected by them. When he left Stewart Hall he was protected by an armed guard consisting of Miller, Woodmansee, Myron Ayers and William Leary.

He took a back street to the Grand Central Hotel. Several men were watching Stewart Hall while he was there, and the witness was told that they were trying to get him either to shoot him or to carry him off to keep him from making a confession.

CONKLIN WANTS HIS FREEDOM.

ALLEGED BIGAMIST SUES A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS IN SUPERIOR COURT.

This morning Attorney J. H. Creeley filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of J. A. Conklin, the ex-soldier and motorman who is confined in the city jail on the charge of bigamy, in having married Elizabeth H. Cornreich of this city while having a wife and several children residing in the East.

The writ was applied for on the ground that Conklin has been in jail for a couple of weeks. He was to have been given a preliminary examination this morning by Judge Smith in the Police Court, but the case was continued until the 17 inst., at the request of the prosecution in order to enable depositions in the case to be secured in the East.

Attorney Creeley holds that the law requires the defendant to be given an immediate examination.

ENSON MEETS WITH SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 9.—News has just reached here of a serious accident which happened to S. B. Thomas, Ensign on the United States steamer Kentucky at Hong Kong. A wire rope fell and knocked him from the turret to the deck, injuring him internally. Mr. Thomas is a son of Captain Thomas of the United States steamer Oregon, now stationed at Puget Sound.

PRINCIPAL POND SAYS HAND IS NOT AGAINST FEMALE TEACHERS

Must Have the Emotional in the Public Schools to Produce Well Educated Students.

Principal J. H. Pond of the Oakland High School has been credited in some quarters with instituting a policy whereby the women teachers in the High School will gradually be supplanted by men teachers.

The question which is agitating the minds of many teachers and educators in this city is: Does Principal Pond consider men more capable teachers than women in the High School work?

During the short time Principal Pond has been at the head of the affairs at the High School five men have been given the vacancies as they occurred. During the same period the women have evidently been ignored, and this has given rise to the opinion that Principal Pond prefers men teachers and has adopted a policy which discriminates against women.

But this is not the case as the following statements by Principal Pond will show.

When asked by a TRIBUNE reporter if he found men to be better instructors, Principal Pond said:

"I believe in women as teachers. Their services as educators are indispensable. They are essential factors in the education of the young, and to dispense with them entirely would make it almost an impossibility to turn out well rounded, nicely balanced young men and women."

"The impression which seems to have gone abroad that I favor men teachers to the exclusion of the women is erroneous."

"The school room is a small world in itself. Women are as essential to progress morally and intellectually in the great outside world. It is their influence which makes the world a well balanced, well poised place to live in. When the view is reduced to the limits of the school room their influence and their necessity is not diminished."

"It would be folly to do away with women entirely in the schools. An irreparable injury would be done to the scholars."

"Yet I do not wish to convey the impression that men are not needed in educational work. They are also essential. While my policy has been to get men teachers when the opportunity opened, it has been done with a view of equalizing the sexes numerically. Heretofore the women have been greater in numbers than the men. This policy I believe to be defective. I wish to get a sufficient number of men teachers in the High School until an equilibrium is established, as I am of the opinion the best results can be obtained this way."

"Where co-education exists, as it does in the High School, it is necessary to preserve a parity between the teachers. If education was all positive or all negative, without the proper blending of the two, it might work a permanent injury to the pupils."

"As a rule, in men teachers the emotional is entirely shut out. They lack the tenderness, patience and intuition which is a woman's by right. To have all men teachers would be to rob the scholars of a sympathy and an emotional influence which could not fail to have a bad effect on the children when their character was finally rounded out by maturity."

"On the contrary, if we have all women teachers, the emotional education is apt to be unduly accentuated. This would be equally bad for the scholars. It might deprive them of the positive and more aggressive ideas that come from men."

The reporter suggested that the discussion possibly brought up the question of the superiority of men or women.

"Nonsense," replied Professor Pond. "Men and women are supreme, each in their own sphere, and both are mighty essential to the success of any enterprise. The influence of men and women while opposite in effect, when combined is the desideratum of educational effort. I may say it is a psychic influence, which when equally balanced and distributed produces the best results."

"It will be my aim to increase the men teachers until a numerical parity has been established. Then it will be my policy to maintain the equilibrium."

"The happy medium is the combination between the two. This will insure the turning out of young men and women who have not been dwarfed or starved in emotions, intellectuality or morality."

PRISONER IS WILD IN COURT.

HAD TO BE BOUND AND DRAGGED INTO THE COURT-ROOM.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Jan. 9.—A scene seldom witnessed in a court of law was enacted in Judge Lorigan's department of the Superior Court this morning, when Harry Elliott, charged with the murder of J. W. Sherman, was brought in for trial. Since his arrest Elliott has been morose and has refused to converse with any one. He is either becoming insane from brooding over his crime, or is enacting an able piece of shamming.

When he was called to go into court today the officers found it necessary to bind his arms, as he had become violent and hysterical. He was carried into the court room and deposited in his chair. As he sat down he emitted a screech which caused the venire of jurors which was hovering over a heater close at hand to scatter with a nervous impulse. In his chair he alternately laughed, wept and moaned, the case went over until Friday in order that he may be examined by physicians.

WILL ADJOURN UNTIL NEXT MONDAY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—As soon as the Senate met today, on motion of Mr. Hale of Maine, the Senate agreed that when it adjourned today it be until Monday next.

Mr. Cockrell of Missouri reported from the Committee on Military Affairs the results of Heistand inquiry that was conducted under the Pettigrew resolution of the session. No action was taken on the report.

A House bill appropriating $10,000 for transcript of records of the General Land Office was passed.

MRS. TROWBRIDGE IS GRANTED A DIVORCE.

Attorney McFadden today filed for the record the decree of divorce which has been granted to Mrs. Little D. Trowbridge from her former husband, Henry O. Trowbridge, which has been granted by Judge Kerrigan of San Francisco. The prayer has been granted on the ground of willful desertion on the part of the defendant. The announcement that Mrs. Trowbridge, who, as well as her husband, is well known in this city, had asked for divorce was published in these columns a few weeks ago.

The defendant allowed the case to go by default. There seemed to be little friction over the matter, the respective parties, up to the last moment, concealing the causes which impelled to the separation. The decree, however, is scarcely so kind, because it contains a statement, undoubtedly prompted by the wife, who takes occasion to say that Trowbridge had spent a considerable amount of the property which had been jointly acquired since the marriage, January 1, 1885. The wife also surrenders to the defendant all the residue of the community property.

The clauses containing these facts in detail are as follows:

"The defendant (Trowbridge) had spent a large majority of the community property of plaintiff and that the separate property of plaintiff is of record in her own name and that the proceeds thereof are amply sufficient to support plaintiff."

"It is ordered that the defendant be awarded all the community property and that all of the property standing of record in the name of the plaintiff be and is hereby decided to be the independent and private property of the plaintiff."

The community property is of slight valuation only.

Mrs. Trowbridge's property is valued at several hundred thousand dollars. Mrs. Trowbridge has become a physician. She is now living in San Francisco. H. O. Trowbridge is residing there also and is engaged in the drug business. While residing here, he was junior member of the drug firm of Kirkland & Trowbridge, at the southwest corner of Tenth and Broadway.

LEAGUE MEETS AT LOS ANGELES.

SEWERAGE QUESTION IS DISCUSSED BY THE VISITING DELEGATION.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 9.—At this morning's session of the California League of Municipalities, the principal topic discussed was for the disposal of sewerage.

In the business session it was determined to hold evening sessions, beginning tonight at 7:30, when the charter discussion will be opened.

The discussion on sewerage was opened by City Clerk Tedford of Santa Ana, who stated that his city of six thousand persons disposed of its sewage by irrigating thirty-five acres of land on the banks of the Santa Ana river. The new system was put in for about $50,000. There are about six hundred sewer connections. The sandy nature of the soil assists the working of the system and no contamination of the irrigated products has been reported as yet.

Delegate Bolton of Hollister described the better system in use in that place and gave a detailed account of the disposal of sewerage by irrigation of the city sewer farm.

EDWARD L. COLNOR IS SERIOUSLY ILL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 9.—Edward L. Colnor, ex-Harbor Commissioner and for many years an owner and editor of the Stockton Mail, is seriously ill at his residence on Haigh street in this city. For some months past his health has been poor and recently it became so much worse as to alarm his relatives and friends. Wednesday night his life was despaired of by his physicians but today his condition is reported as slightly improved.

BASEBALL

Friday is the day set apart by the League magnates to put the old California Baseball League on the shelf like a last year's ledger and start all over again with a new organization and new plans consistent with modern methods and harmony. James Morley, manager of the Los Angeles team, is in his way here to make some claims for the welfare of his team and the cranks he caters for. According to the press dispatches which precede him, Morley intends to play a part of some importance at the Friday meeting. Last year he was anxious to get into the League, and to accomplish his purpose agreed to every demand made on him by the punctilious magnates of the 1900 League. Among other things, he put up a cash deposit of $2,500 as a guarantee that his club would finish out the season.

"Los Angeles is in a position this year to get much better terms from the League than those of last year, and in the matter of the guarantee alone we will be able to do away with that $2,500 forfeit to finish the season. Another thing that will be given to Los Angeles this year is the extra Sunday morning game. Last season we suffered from the fact that every other team got 15 more games than we did, and Los Angeles had to play just that much better ball to keep up the average," say the dispatches, evidently penned by Manager Morley's press agent. But that kind of talk has the right ring to it, and a little of it would sound well in Oakland.

This city has improved wonderfully in the past few years and grown to such proportions that time is too precious to go elsewhere for entertainment. The policy of having a Sunday morning game here and forcing business men to San Francisco for afternoon games is obsolete and jeopardizing interest in the sport. Old baseball enthusiasts whose business interests are growing with the advance of city improvement are being weaned away from their old love because they cannot find time to go to San Francisco week day afternoons and have other duties on their time Sunday mornings. The result is the attendance at the Sunday morning games here is beginning to feel the effects of the invasion of other forms of entertainment now plentifully supplied us and suffering in comparison.

When racing opened at the Emeryville race track a few years ago hardly twenty-five people entered the Park avenue gate. As the season progressed interest increased, but not until this year, when racing continued here daily without interruption, did the directors of the New California Jockey Club appreciate the patrons coming from Oakland. Now an average of 400 people daily pay $1.50 to pass through the Park avenue gate. One of the terms of the lease of the Tanforan property in San Mateo county called for at least thirty days' racing each year while the property was leased. To move to Tanforan for thirty days meant to sacrifice the Oakland patronage at the Park avenue gate, and rather than suffer such a loss, the New California Jockey Club purchased outright the Tanforan leased land for something over $30,000. Racing will continue at Emeryville until Ingleside is allowed to open, when the two tracks may alternate with Emeryville obtaining the most days because of the large Oakland and country patronage it gets.

There is a morsel of news worth consideration by the Baseball League magnates. Oakland people are as fond of baseball as racing, and if allowed enough of the national game to enthrone over they can be depended upon to turn out as large an attendance as any city on the Coast proportionate with its population. The Sunday morning games, instead of falling away in interest as they are doing now, will grow apace with the times and the many other improvements now to be found in the city, and Cal Ewing will be placed in a position as independent as Jim Morley or any other League magnate. Oakland is no longer a jumping off place or a bad humor. It is a city growing and full of youthful enthusiasm.

THE TURF.

Everybody at Emeryville yesterday was delighted to see the old and familiar colors of W. O. B. McDonough in front. Orfeo, a two-year-old son of Orsini and Moonlit, trained by Curley Shields, a well-known and popular horseman now making his home in Oakland, won the baby race like a good racer. Both Owner McDonough and Trainer Shields have been in the hardest kind of luck this season and it was a pleasure to see the spell broken and victory brought home to them. Shields is a very patient man, but patience was beginning to be a burden with the added vicissitudes of all kinds of ill fortune until a happy relief came yesterday with the unexpected success of Orfeo.

The colt had been well tried, but acted a bit green in large fields, and was not looked upon by his owner or trainer as a safe betting proposition, hence the odds of 15 to 1 against him. Bullman got him away from the barrier nicely and kept him going at his best all the way with the result that he wore down the pace-maker, Venezia, and had enough left to stall off the first coming favorite, Theodorus, who got away from the barrier in bad shape or he might have won. The race was set at 2-2 furlongs and was very interesting.

Jockey Mounce landed twice yesterday. Jackson, Ranch, Bullman and Mattier taking the other events, Mounce probably overdid the waiting act with Venezia in the last race. He gained on the leaders through the stretch, but had too much ground to make up.

The Hoodoo ran a pretty fair race yesterday for a 100 to 1 shot, and will about do the next time out among his own kind. He beat more than, beat him.

Prestano is now trained by Butch Kelly. He has been working well lately and won splendid race yesterday consistent with his work.

Bragg should have won yesterday. Ranch took matters entirely too easy up the stretch and waited for a drive.

It got it and the older gelding won. A young horse just turning three years has little chance when hooked up in a drive with an old horse. Had Ranch gone on about his business he might have won.

When racing opened at the Emeryville race track a few years ago hardly twenty-five people entered the Park avenue gate.

As the season progressed interest increased, but not until this year, when racing continued here daily without interruption, did the directors of the New California Jockey Club appreciate the patrons coming from Oakland.

Now an average of 400 people daily pay $1.50 to pass through the Park avenue gate.

One of the terms of the lease of the Tanforan property in San Mateo county called for at least thirty days' racing each year while the property was leased.

To move to Tanforan for thirty days meant to sacrifice the Oakland patronage at the Park avenue gate, and rather than suffer such a loss, the New California Jockey Club purchased outright the Tanforan leased land for something over $30,000.

Racing will continue at Emeryville until Ingleside is allowed to open, when the two tracks may alternate with Emeryville obtaining the most days because of the large Oakland and country patronage it gets.

There is a morsel of news worth consideration by the Baseball League magnates.

Oakland people are as fond of baseball as racing, and if allowed enough of the national game to enthrone over they can be depended upon to turn out as large an attendance as any city on the Coast proportionate with its population.

The Sunday morning games, instead of falling away in interest as they are doing now, will grow apace with the times and the many other improvements now to be found in the city, and Cal Ewing will be placed in a position as independent as Jim Morley or any other League magnate.

Oakland is no longer a jumping off place or a bad humor. It is a city growing and full of youthful enthusiasm.

HAYWARDS PEOPLE PROTEST AGAINST THE TRANSIT LINE.

Kelly's Methods Are Denounced by Board of Trade. S. P. Will Run into the Center of Town.

The people of Haywards do not care a fig for the Oakland Transit Company. They have unkind words for its service and contempt for its management. They do not propose to go as supplicants to the autocrat of the monopoly and beg to have commutation tickets for resident patrons restored. They are going to fight the newly-risen octopus by competition. They hope to be able to do this through the instrumentality of the Southern Pacific Railroad. If they succeed, they will accomplish a dual purpose. They will rebuke the heartlessness and rapacity of the imported fireling introducing imported methods. They will, at the same time, build up their pretty and enterprising town, which the big, blind and rapacious management of the Oakland Transit Company has labored to destroy.

PLAN OF ATTACK.
The plan proposed to attain this end is to induce the Southern Pacific to extend a spur track from the main line right into the heart of town. This would require the laying of rails for about three-quarters of a mile. There is a mortgage on the right-of-way for the extension of the track will be donated. There is a reasonable belief that the company will make the extension. Public feeling is so aroused in the premises that right-of-way will be granted by the Town Trustees.

In a sudden event the town will be placed nearly three-quarters of an hour nearer Oakland, an hour and a half nearer San Francisco. Business men of both places may then take up their residence in Haywards and at the same time attend to their duties in their respective towns. The working people will enjoy not only commutation but rapid service. To do this with the assistance of the Transit Company is miles beyond the probability of accomplishment.

THE FIRST STEP.
The first step in this direction was taken last night at a very business-like meeting of the board of trustees of the town held in the Town Hall, when a committee consisting of P. Wilbert, George A. Oakes and D. Chisholm was appointed to confer with the Town Trustees with a view to securing the grant of a right-of-way for the Southern Pacific Company into the town. It will also ask the Trustees to appoint a committee to act with it to lay a proposition before the management of the Southern Pacific Company whenever such a proposition shall be decided upon.

THE MEETING.
The meeting was presided over by P. Wilbert. When the subject of the restoration of the commutation tickets was introduced, President Wilbert said that he had been talking to business men of the community on the subject. Continuing, he said, "I have a plan which, if put into practice, would result in something good. It is the removal of the commutation tickets has reached through the town. If the plan I propose to overcome that, if it is good, it should be carried out. If it is not good, we should let it go. It certainly is not for the interests of the community to have it rest at the mercy of the Transit Company, which has treated us so shabbily."

TICKETS ON THE S. P.
"I have learned that the Southern Pacific Railroad Company sold twenty more commutation tickets at the first of the month. That would show probably, that twenty commuters have left the electric road and gone to the depot. That is a shame and a disgrace, and lots of people are unable to catch it when they want to. SEND A COMMITTEE."

"I think if the Board of Trade would send a committee to the Board of Trustees of this city and ask them if they would grant the Southern Pacific a right-of-way up to the town, we would get a street for that purpose. That would accommodate the people, and that would accommodate trade and travel. It would accommodate business, and it would not only come here but would also reside here."

A DEPOT SITE.
"I have secured a good place for a depot site. It could be got for the railroad company at a very moderate price. If we could get the road, the old abandoned horse car to the depot would be a thing of the past."

"If a committee is appointed to wait upon the Southern Pacific and present the facts and make a proposition to them, I think it would have a good result. We ought to present that matter by means of a committee to the Board of Trustees and, if that Board thinks it is a good move to make, let us go at it. It is a bad move, let it go."

FAVORED BY MERCHANTS.
"I have talked to many influential merchants who have looked into the matter and, among them, Mr. Meek, and he says it is an excellent move. Others say that this is the thing to do."

QUICKER SERVICE.
"If we ever get it done, it will be the best thing we ever did. It can then get business men to reside here. They will be able to reach San Francisco in an hour and a half. As the electric road is now it takes nearly an hour and a half to ride from here to Oakland, and then they have to take a car across the bay to the city. It is only twenty-one miles from this city to San Francisco and then they have to take so long to reach it, it is an outrage. We are near enough to San Francisco and our climate is pleasant enough to have others come and not visit here but to live here."

S. P. WILL HELP.
"If you do want to live here, I think the railroad company will help us. If it is a good move, as I said, go ahead. If it is a bad one for the community, let it alone."

THE PLAINT OF MILES.

The Philadelphia Times takes the position that the President should have overlooked General Miles' breach of discipline in criticising the findings of the Naval Court of Inquiry because Miles is a much older man than Roosevelt and has seen much more military service. It goes on to say that the "accidents of politics have made Mr. Roosevelt the titular commander of General Miles," and makes other comments which indicate the opinion that the President should consider himself the commander-in-chief of the army only in a Pickwickian sense.

This is absurd. The President is supreme commander of the army by virtue of the Constitution, and the Secretary of War is merely his deputy in charge of the War Department. How Mr. Roosevelt came to be President in no way concerns General Miles nor does it affect his obligation to obey the regulations and observe the amenities of his position.

When Napoleon took command of the army of Italy he had under him generals of division twice his age who had seen ten times as much actual service in the field. Nevertheless, Napoleon exacted implicit obedience and compelled the most rigid discipline. What would he have accomplished if his subordinates had been allowed to disobey orders and violate the regulations on the ground that they were older in years and longer in service?

General Miles is field commander at the will of the President. But, leaving that entirely aside, it is the duty of every officer to set an example to all subordinates. Miles' remarks were calculated to promote insubordination in the Navy Department. It was none of his business, as Secretary Root plainly told him. In thus meddling with the affairs of another department of the public service he committed a breach of official decorum that called for salutary rebuke.

Under the circumstances, it does not lie in the mouths of Miles and his friends to complain of ill treatment or to cavil about the terms in which the reprimand was administered. To question the President's right to administer a rebuke in no wise mitigates Miles' offense. The rebuke would go for nothing if it were not evident that General Miles deserved it. Its sting lies in the dereliction which justified it.

CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE.

Why is it that something is wrong with the boats whenever a ship is wrecked? When the Walla Walla went down some of the boats leaked so badly that they could only be kept afloat by constant bailing. Other boats were insufficiently supplied with oars and one boat had a broken oar. The same story was told when the ferry boat San Rafael was sunk, and it was but the repetition of the experience with boats of the Rio Janeiro when that vessel was wrecked in the Golden Gate.

It is evident that sufficient care is not taken of the boats. There is so little occasion to use them that they are neglected and allowed to get leaky and unseaworthy. In cases of disaster this species of neglect assumes the aspect of criminality, because it entails the unnecessary loss of human life.

The failure to keep the boats in proper order is in direct violation of the orders of the shipowners. All the steamship companies, in their printed regulations, require ships' officers to keep the boats in perfect condition and to put the crew through boat drill at frequent intervals. What occurs in cases of accident gives plain evidence that this rule is frequently allowed to fall into inexcusable desuetude aboard steamships. That alone can account for the leaky boats and broken oars. It is a rule that should be more stringently enforced.

Frank H. Peavy, the millionaire elevator man of Minneapolis, has shown that the possession of millions does not always harden a man's heart. In his will he directed that all his employees be given one month's salary each, and instructed the executors to retain the old employees and to care for them after they are too old to work. If there were more men like Mr. Peavy in the world there would be fewer strikes and more good will between employer and employee. However, wealthy men generally are coming to realize that their employees have some claims on them other than the mere wage they receive. Those who recognize this truth and live up to it generally discover that it is a policy which pays in the long run.

It turns out that no official offer has been made to sell the Panama canal for $40,000,000 or any sum below the original price asked. The story that the company was willing to sell at any old price was simply set afloat to delay action on the Nicaragua canal. As might be supposed, there is a method in this. While we are discussing plans and figuring out details the Frenchmen are digging away at Panama, and we may wake up to find that we have no American canal after all, but that the water way through the Isthmus is controlled in Europe, which would be bad for the Monroe Doctrine.

Senator Tillman says Roosevelt is the stormy petrel of politics. Tillman is the one-eyed Riley with a pitchfork, and his opinions are valuable only as an evidence of what is wrong.

The dispatches from South Africa indicate that another British disaster is about due. It is given out that the Boers are about suppressed.

Signor Domenico Russo, the incomparable Lyric Tenor.

The great Italian singers will be at the Unitarian Church next Tuesday evening, when one of the grandest concerts of the season will be given. Such great singers as Repetto, Collanarini, Russo and Ferrari will be heard. In Los Angeles the company made one of the great hits of the season. The sale of seats will open at Sherman & Clay's music store tomorrow morning. A very large audience is promised.

The singers are noted over all the country and were once with the famous Lombardi Company. No music lover can afford to miss this concert. The prices are reasonable and the program is one of the finest ever offered in the city.

PRETTY WEDDING OF MISS READ.

POPULAR EAST OAKLAND YOUNG LADY IS THE BRIDE OF ALVAN Z. SARGENT.

Miss Grace Elizabeth M. Read and Alvan Zebulon Sargent were married by the Rev. William Carson Shaw at the Church of the Advent in East Oakland, at 8:30 o'clock last evening. The church was well filled with friends and relatives, to the number of 700.

The decorations were very pretty, the pillars of the church being covered with green foliage. The ceremony took place beneath three beautiful floral wedding bells, the central one being white and the largest. The two smaller pink bells were on each side of the main bell, the three being joined by white ribbons. Long festooned streamers of pink ribbons met in a true lovers' knot over the chancel, the aisle approach to which was arched by graceful palm boughs.

Frank Schenckstein, organist of the Church of the Advent in San Francisco, rendered a wedding march as the bridal party moved slowly up the aisles.

First came the ushers, Alfred C. Read, Fred Chase, William Hall and Frederick Le Bailleur, who were followed by the four bridesmaids, Miss Ruth Sweet, Miss Marian Ellis, Miss Minnie Metzger and Miss Daisy Dorsey. The bridesmaids wore pink or white and their bouquets were of maidenhair ferns.

The maid of honor was Miss Hattie Green of Walnut Creek. She wore green organdy and carried pink carnations.

The bride was charming in a gown of white silk trimmed with real Valenciennes lace, the gown having been sent from England by the bride's godmother.

The groom was attended by his best man, Henry Dodge. Leaving the church, the bridal party and a few relatives were driven to the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Read, on Ninth avenue, where a wedding supper was enjoyed.

At the supper William Hall acted as toast-master. There were a number of musical selections to add to the festivity, the bride's brother, Alfred C. Read, singing several songs.

The long table in the dining room was set for twenty-five. At either end were large vases, one with pink carnations and the other holding lavender roses. The bride and groom sat at one end, while the officiating clergyman sat at the other. At each guest's plate was a pretty favored heart-shaped card of pink and green ribbon bearing the date, the guest's name and the initials of the bride and groom. The room itself was decorated with fir and bamboo boughs, and in the parlor where the many handsome gifts imposed on tables were more decorations of green boughs. Some of these gifts had come from outside the State, of special interest was the gold saddle set, the gift of the church choir of which the bride had been a member.

Late in the evening the happy couple left for their honeymoon trip, which it is understood will be taken to Marin county, where they have secured a pretty little cottage at a quiet resort. They will afterward take up their home on Fifth street, where the groom's business as assistant superintendent of the Spreckels sugar refinery requires his residence on that side of the bay.

Among those present at the ceremony were: Mrs. A. J. Read, Miss Florence White, the Misses Harold, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Ellis, Mrs. B. Bungle, John Combs, L. J. Jordan, Edward Jordan, Miss Blackhart, Mr. and Mrs. C. de Hadley, Mrs. Meyer, John F. Klok, L. B. Myers, Norman Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams, J. B. Smallman, August Hughes, Miss Brando, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burr, Miss Margaret Burr, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Nye, Mrs. O. M. Vesper, Miss Vesper, Miss Margaret Vesper, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Metzger, Mrs. Louis Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. George Westlake, Mrs. Susan Harrington, David Mathison, Miss Nellie Hynes, Miss Cameron, Miss Gertrude Baker, Mrs. James Phillips, Miss Florence Phillips, John Phillips, Professor Doffelt, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fredrickson.

INSANE MAN GIVES BATTLE.
WOMAN COMPLAINS TO THE POLICE ABOUT TREATMENT OF A PATIENT.

Mrs. William Burns of San Francisco visited Prosecuting Attorney Leach in this city yesterday and complained to him that her husband was being roughly treated by attendants at the Christian Science Sanitarium, conducted by Dr. J. Murray, at 644 Merrimac street here.

Mrs. Burns informed the Prosecuting Attorney that she had brought her husband to the sanitarium about two weeks ago to have him given care and treatment for a slight mental ailment and that heroic measures were being used on the patient. She said that a husband and that his mental condition was daily becoming worse.

Mrs. Dr. Murray was spoken to about Mrs. Burns' charges. She said: "Mr. Burns was brought here," said Mrs. Dr. Murray, "on the 27th of last month by M. Burns and two gentlemen who seemed to be acting as his bodyguard. I thought it peculiar at the time that Mr. Burns should require guardians when Mrs. Burns assured me that he was harmless. We are Christian Scientists and informed the patient's wife that he would be treated in a gentle manner. This we have done, but were compelled to resort to a canvas jacket and two straps to hold him in bed."

"We have been informed that the man is an ex-prizefighter and his actions certainly seem to bear out his statements. His blows have intense power and when he is seized with a spell it requires six men to hold him."

FRATERNAL NEWS OF THE WEEK.

INTERESTING EVENTS ARE RECORDED IN THE LOCAL LODGE ROOMS

ODD FELLOWS.

The session of Oakland Lodge No. 118, I. O. O. F., held last Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, was of peculiar interest, it being the occasion of a public installation and entertainment. After the routine business of the lodge had been concluded, the doors of the lodge were thrown open to the families and friends of the members, and the lodgeroom, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by Brother P. G. D. A. Price, was quickly filled with an appreciative audience. The Collegiate Orchestra rendered several selections preliminary to and during the ceremony of installation, and after those ceremonies the following program was presented: Remarks, by P. G. D. A. Price; address, by P. G. H. J. Allen; song, by Mrs. Mollie Jones; recitation, by Mrs. A. Donaldson; vocal selection, by Dr. O. T. Wilson; speciality and professional buck and wing dance, by Miss Daisy Krell; song and dance by the female singers.

Refreshments were served by the Rustlers during the evening. On the evening of February 13, Oakland Lodge No. 118 will give a Valentine's dance, under the auspices of the Committee of Rustlers, to which and invite its members and friends. The affair will be of a purely complimentary nature, and it is thought that if the dance last given under the auspices of the Committee of Rustlers is to be taken as an earnest of what the coming one will be, invitations will be in great demand.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD.

Oakland Lodge No. 123, Fraternal Brotherhood, met in Woodman Hall on Friday last. After a brief business session, the doors were thrown open to the invited guests. The officers were publicly installed as follows: H. A. Luttrell, being the installing officer; President, James Taylor; Vice-president, Mrs. S. E. Carr; chaplain, Mrs. C. Morris; secretary, F. E. Clarke; treasurer, J. W. King; sergeant-at-arms, Chas. R. Pritchard; inside doorkeeper, Mrs. John W. Racey; outside doorkeeper, Mrs. C. Colburn; lodge deputy, H. A. Luttrell.

Great credit is due the drill team for the efficient manner in which they conducted the floor work. The team was composed of Mr. Penn, Miss Vivian Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Rich, Burt Wyman, Miss Rose Campbell, Dr. Cockerton and Miss Kabisius.

A very fine program was rendered, the first number being a flute solo by R. Lenz, accompanied by Miss Lucy Hannibal; piano solo, Miss Hannibal; vocal trio, Lack of San Francisco, accompanied by Miss Hannibal, piano, and violin obligato by Miss Lois Mendenhall.

A large delegation from Hayward Lodge was present. Speeches were made by Mr. Costello, Mr. Lake, Mrs. Lee, Dr. Allen.

James Taylor, the newly installed president, made some very interesting remarks regarding the lodge. The company will proceed to San Francisco on the 8 o'clock Creek boat on Sunday next.

COUNTRY CLUBS MEETS WITH MRS. LAYSON.

IRVINGTON, CAL., Jan. 9.—The Country Club met with Mrs. Layson on Tuesday, January 7th at Ardenwood near Centerville. The coming convention of Women's Clubs to be held in San Francisco in February was discussed.

After the business and regucation program Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Layson gave a delightful account of the Eastern trip they enjoyed in Mr. Layson's private car, F. S. Pledge.

Two vocal solos were rendered by Miss Stella Graham. On Tuesday, February 4th the Country Club will meet with Mrs. Lennhart in Centerville.

SERVICES AT WEST OAKLAND.

Chester-street Church is holding evangelistic services every night this week except Saturday. The pastor, Rev. Monroe H. Alexander has preached thus far. There will be preaching to-night and Friday night. Rev. G. W. Beatty will preach Friday night.

ATHENS CIRCLE.

Athens Circle No. 206 has installed the following new officers: Mrs. A. J. Keller, chief companion; Mrs. Hunt, sub chief companion; Mrs. Corrine, financial secretary; F. P. Austin, recording secretary; A. J. Noe, treasurer; Mrs. Brooks, right guide; Mrs. Forrest, left guide; Mrs. Burns, inner guard; Miss Dryer, outer guard.

of the ritualistic work incidental to the occasion having been memorized.

Grand Chief Lily S. Smith assisted the deputy with her usual efficiency. Past Chief Margaret Kline occupied the position of grand manager. The following officers took their respective positions: Past chief, Led Smart; most excellent chief, Annie Samuels; E. senior, Carrie Gelder; E. junior, Mary Fleming; manager, Jennie Levy; M. of F., Annie Camp; M. of R. and C., Margaret Chloupek; protector, Eltie Rappan; O. guard, Flora Ellaser; organist, M. Robinson.

The presentation of a past chief jewel to Sister Smart by the grand chief on behalf of the temple then took place. There was also a recitation by Supreme Representative George Samuels, which was encored to the echo. Remarks were made by visiting sisters of Rio Vista and Vallejo, among them being Chief Minnie Emigh; M. E. Chief Mabel Kruger.

At the conclusion of the temple ceremonies a repeat claimant, the convention of the sisters and knights, the visitors having the table of honor. That the feast was a merry one, all who were present can testify without divulging any of the secrets of the order.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Last Tuesday evening, January 7th, being the final meeting of the first term of Dirigo Lodge, No. 234, Knights of Pythias, was celebrated by a grand banquet in the large hall of Pythian Castle, corner of Twelfth and Franklin streets.

Grand Chancellor L. S. Calkins of Nevada City, Hon. Robert F. Burns of Auburn and Pas. Supreme Representative Judge Buckles of Suisun came from their respective homes to attend. Eight local lodges as well as several outside of the State were represented.

After the lodge opened, nine strangers were elected to become members. Then, to music furnished by the Columbian Orchestra, all adjourned to the banquet hall where Chancellor Commander Carl F. Wood, as toastmaster, reviewed the remarkable progress of the lodge, saying in part that Dirigo Lodge, No. 234 was instituted July 2, 1901, with fifty-six members and that at present 165 names are on the roster and 23 applications are yet to be acted upon, which will make Dirigo the largest K. P. lodge in Alameda county.

Dirigo started without a dollar, has purchased all the necessary supplies and paraphernalia for conferring the ranks, which cost several hundred dollars; deposited $600 in bank and the master-of-exchequer still has on hand between $300 and $400.

Then followed Grand Chancellor L. S. Calkins who spoke on "Pythianism in 1902" and also of the coming convocation of the Supreme Lodge to be held in San Francisco in August next at which all of 14,000 people are expected to be present. It is proposed to have such a grand parade of the Uniform Rank that the sight will be remembered for many years to come.

Next came a mandolin selection by Brother Pederson and others; followed by Judge Buckles on "The Pythian Army." Brother A. Brown then sang, Hon. R. F. Burns spoke on "Our Country." Then Dr. Derrick spoke on "Young Men in Pythianism," after which, on behalf of the members of Dirigo Lodge, the doctor presented Chancellor Commander Carl F. Wood with a handsome diamond-studded watch-chain, to which the young attorney responded in a few well-chosen words. Then all were favored with a song from Brother Harry L. Perry, a pleasant talk from the lodge's deputy, followed by District Deputy J. R. Sloan, a speech from Frank Covey of Stockton and from Supreme Representative George Samuels as "The Wind-up."

Much credit is due the committee, F. S. Layson, M. Bock and Dr. J. S. Rees, who had charge of the banquet. Next Tuesday night, January 14th, the newly-elected officers will be installed and all Knights are cordially invited.

OAKLAND LODGE.

On Monday evening last the celebrated team of Oakland Lodge, No. 103, K. of P., conferred the Knight Rank upon an esquire of the Castle hall of Piedmont Lodge, No. 172.

In the language of District Deputy Sloan, "It was never better given."

The Castle Hall was well filled with visiting Knights. After the close of the meeting refreshments were served and a general good time was experienced until midnight, when all adjourned, wishing Piedmont a happy new year and a prosperous one.

The following officers will be installed on Monday night, January 13th: Chancellor Commander, W. Healy; vice-chancellor, Dr. Eymon; prelate, James Desmond; K. of R. and S. E. Schwarzbaum; M. of F. D. Berovich; M. of Ex. P. J. Ryan; M. of Works, M. Levy; M. at-Arms, S. Berovich; inner guard, Gus Becker; outer guard, R. E. Lewis.

SCOTTISH CLANS.

Clan MacDonald has just passed a very prosperous year and enters the new year with every prospect of still further success.

The new officers will be installed tomorrow evening and if a past record of hard work is any indication of the future, Clan MacDonald will be in safe hands for the ensuing year.

The annual Hogmanay concert and dance was a grand success, both in attendance and in the quality of the entertainment.

THIN AND THICK.

Good Food Will Do Wonders.

A test was made to see how much a thin person could gain by using Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food. A lady in Warren, O., says, "Some months ago I was so thin and poorly nourished I thought I would see what effect Grape-Nuts would have on me, so I began taking the food regularly for breakfast and began to greatly improve at once."

"I kept track of my weight and found I gained nearly ten pounds in about six weeks, and I have never felt better in my life. Have no more sour stomach, and you may depend I think the food of great success."

"My son noticed he could memorize more readily since he began using Grape-Nuts. Please don't publish my name." (Name can be given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.)

The system will build out the body to its natural size and weight if the stomach can digest the food properly. So when Grape-Nuts food is taken, being really pre-digested, it quickly goes into the blood and makes not only the blood rich, but the body is nourished and builds the brain and nerve centers. This comes from the delicate particles of phosphate of potash which is from certain parts of the field grains and incorporated in the food itself. It will prove the truth of the statement.

THE MACCABEES

Oakland Tent No. 17 will publicly install its officers-elect for the semi-annual term ending July 1, 1902, next Monday evening. The old officers on retiring will leave the Tent with 502 members and in a splendid financial condition. Dr. F. R. Jordan the retiring commander has made an enviable record as a presiding officer. He has always been alive to the best interests of the organization and handled its affairs in a masterly manner. The members regret that the last month of his administration was clouded by a severe spell of sickness, but are pleased to know that he is on the high road to recovery.

Commander-elect J. S. Carney has passed through all the minor chairs and will therefore be well equipped for his new duties.

All members who can possibly attend will be present with their families. Dancing will follow the installation.

MODERN WOODMEN.

Golden Gate Camp No. 7236 M. W. of A. had its installation of officers last Thursday evening at which time reports were presented showing the condition of the Camp and the progress made during the year.

The Camp has increased very substantially during the year and is now in a flourishing condition.

The officers installed for the year are as follows: James H. Hulbert, Venerable Consul; Arthur C. Bennett, Worthy Advisor; Daniel C. Henningsen, Excellent Banker; John Patton, Clerk; Arthur E. H. Paterson, Escort; Elbert D. Liddell, Watchman; Edward O. Williams, Physician; Jesse A. Jackson, Walter V. Harrington, and Professor Albert V. Fought for Managers.

Tonight a number of candidates will be initiated into the Camp.

PRIDE OF THE FOREST.

Pride of the Forest Circle, No. 122, C. O. P., met last Thursday evening as usual. Chief Companion Mrs. Smith was absent. Deputy Falconer acted as Relief Chief. Installation of officers for the next term was in order.

SUES THE BANK FOR LARGE SUM

SMITH'S CASH STORE WANTS $100,000 DAMAGES FROM THE FIRST NATIONAL.

Suit has been commenced in the United States District Court by the Smith's Cash Store, of which Mr. H. A. Smith of Alameda is general manager, to recover $100,000 from the First National Bank of San Francisco for damages alleged to have been caused by the dishonoring of the checks of the plaintiff. The complaint recites that on the 29th day of January, 1900, while the store had a sufficient sum of money to its credit in the bank to pay checks, it drew checks aggregating $3,750, and that, without any notice, the bank refused to pay them.

This action on the part of the bank, it is charged, created alarm among the creditors of the store, and they forced the management to make an assignment; that the business was greatly injured thereby, and for several months it was in the hands of the assignee.

By making large sacrifice, it is claimed, of the goods in stock, the assignee succeeded in paying off the entire indebtedness, but the corporation was injured to the extent of $100,000. It is further recited in the complaint that at the time of the refusal of the bank to honor its checks, the store was doing a business of $600,000 a year, and that on January 29, 1900, it had $8,000 to its credit and in the bank, and only drew checks aggregating $3,750 against that deposit. The Object of Our Advertising is Not to Make People READ,
But to Make People THINK.

LET US REASON!

WE are not in business for our health, neither are Market street concerns which advertise Roxbury Carpets at 75c per yard. People go into business to make a profit, but the amount of profit asked by different stores is almost entirely governed by the running expenses of the respective stores. Our enormous establishment, with its facilities for handling large quantities of trade with the least possible expense, is enabled to undersell any downtown stores from 10 to 20 per cent. Our rent account has never amounted to 1 per cent of our sales, and it is not a matter of guesswork when we affirm that the average rent account of a Market street furniture store should fully reach 7 per cent. Here is a saving in our favor in rent alone on a business of $500,000 a year of $30,000. Does it stand to reason that a store thus handicapped can sell goods at our prices?

70c per yard at PATTOSIEN'S

STILL there are other items of unavoidable expense unknown to us, but only too well known to the downtown business men, which all help to raise the running expense of a Market street Furniture Store to enormous proportions, and make it quite impossible for them to compete with "off stores."

Many have tried to run a Furniture Store on Market street between Third and Eighth, but all have failed. Able and honest men have been swamped by "MARKET STREET EXPENSE." "Fools rush to where angels fear to tread."

Roxbury Carpets, 70c per yard at PATTOSIEN'S

WE challenge the Market-street concerns to meet our prices on all makes of carpets.

Stop prating about a few shop-worn patterns of Roxbury carpets at 75c.

Why tax people $1.00 for Stinson Carpet when the mill price of Roxbury and Stinson is the same? We sell Stinson for 90c.

Why charge 85c for Higgins Carpet that costs 50c wholesale? We sell this Carpet for 75c.

Hartford Axminsters we sell for $1.25, instead of $1.40.

Bigelow Lowell we sell for $1.25 instead of $1.50.

Wilton Velvets we sell for $1.10 instead of $1.25.

Matting, Linoleum, Oilcloth, Rugs at prices in proportion.

"A bright butterfly may grow in a rough cocoon," and you may find the most Beautiful Carpets and Draperies at the BIG MISSION STORE.

Roxbury Carpets, 70c per yard at PATTOSIEN'S

WE admit doing much the largest Carpet Business in San Francisco. We suggest that you inquire the reason Why? Also, that you consider that our workmanship is absolutely the best in the city; in fact, our workshop is a regular training school, where other stores draw their help from, and last year a Market-street concern paid us the compliment of hiring one of our cutters, three of our sewing girls and one of our salesmen, and by these very concerns we were being daily accused of poor workmanship. We are not dabblers in the business, but specialists, and give our patrons knowledge and experience, together with the lowest Carpet prices in San Francisco. "WE SUGGEST A VISIT."

Roxbury Carpets, 70c per yard at PATTOSIEN'S

IF our Carpet patterns weren't the handsomest, if the values weren't the best we wouldn't do the biggest Carpet Business on the Coast. Here are styles you find nowhere else; prices you meet nowhere else; and if your heart is set on a pattern you don't see in our line we will get it at a lower price and do you a better job. It is superfluous to tell you to buy where you can buy best.

We ask your confidence in the goods we offer, and shall prove worthy of it by the values we render you.

We can do no more than invite you to our store. Will you come?

Roxbury Carpets, 70c per yard at PATTOSIEN'S.

IN choosing Furniture come to Furniture Headquarters.

Furniture from the lowest to the highest and the within, between prices. Prices within the range of all; for the rich; those with modest incomes; those with close buying tendencies. "SELLING GOOD FURNITURE CHEAP." THE PATTOSIEN STANDARD, early established, will be maintained now and hereafter. Read On!

It took years of fine figuring, of shrewd manipulating and of manufacturing in order to provide the best possible grade of Furniture at the lowest price, as well as years of honest endeavor and straightforward business methods to establish the fact, as we have done. How well we have succeeded is daily proven by the continued growth and expansion of our business.

Roxbury Carpets, 70c per yard at PATTOSIEN'S

OUR PARLOR FURNITURE FACTORY is much the largest in the city. The making of fine Parlor Furniture is part of our business. We believe that the class of goods we manufacture, as, for instance, Parlor Sets, odd Divans, odd Chairs, Couches, etc., etc., is decidedly the best. "SECOND TO NONE" is the motto of our manufacturing department. Our designs have some charming exclusive styles for your approval, but exclusiveness does not imply extravagant prices at our store. We want to emphasize LOWEST PRICE. Although our furniture is lower in price, it is faultless in styles, workmanship and finish. No exaggerated values; no absurd comparatives; no building up of false hopes. You will find just what we promise.

Roxbury Carpets, 70c per yard at PATTOSIEN'S

IN our Drapery Department the cry to reduce stocks at any price is particularly acute. Radical reductions are the rule, and the inventory bargains are of exceptional and advantageous character, offering, as they do, opportunities seldom, if ever, equalled. We offer 300 pairs Tapestry Portieres, heavily fringed at top and bottom; all colors; only one and two pairs alike; worth $6.50 a pair; inventory price, $3.75. 400 pairs Brussels effect, Scotch net and novelty Lace Curtains; 25 choice patterns to select from; worth $4.00 a pair; inventory price, $2.30. 800 pairs fine Lace Curtains, including real Lusse's, Irish Point, Renaissance, Arabians and Nottingham Curtains; one to three pairs of a kind; worth up to $8.00 a pair; inventory price, $4.75. 50-inch tapestry for curtains, upholstery, etc., worth $1.50 per yard; inventory price, 65c per yard. 36-inch Curtain Net for long or sash curtains; worth 35c a pair; inventory price, 20c.

MERRY ROUND OF ACCIDENTS ON KELLY'S LINE

BROKEN DOWN CARS RUN INTO PEOPLE WITHOUT ANY WARNING.

The merry round of "accidents" on the Oakland Transit system under the management of W. F. Kelly continues as lively as a Chinese new year.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon one of Kelly's cars ran down a Chinese laundry wagon at the junction of Eleventh and Union streets, and smashed it into kindling wood. The Mongolian driver was hurled out into the street and the harness was torn completely off the horse.

The car, No. 19, was going along at a very high rate of speed—some say fully twenty-five miles an hour—which makes it remarkable that the damage was not more serious. As it was, the front of the car was badly damaged, all the windows being broken. One passenger was cut in the face by flying fragments of glass.

According to the statements of the passengers the accident was caused solely by the reckless rate of speed at which the car was going. Manager Kelly allows so little leeway in running time that it is difficult to make the runs on time. Car 19 was behind time, and the motorman tried to make it up by running down the grade between Oak and Fallon streets at a fearful rate of speed. The Chinese driver did not expect the car was running a race against time, and it was on him before he had time to think. His escape from death is remarkable.

Tuesday afternoon one of Kelly's cars on the Haywards line collided with a carriage in front of Contractor M. H. Hackett's residence at San Leandro. The carriage was put out of business. The car was going at a break-neck speed through San Leandro in the effort to make the time required by Kelly's schedule. Fortunately nobody was killed or seriously injured.

Monday another one of Kelly's old flat wheel cars jumped the track and stopped the Haywards line for about an hour, much to the disgust of passengers. The numerous accidents, coupled with the negligently administered policy inaugurated by Manager Kelly, is causing more people to patronize the Southern Pacific than heretofore. Many others who used to depend on the electric road now drive into town.

MORE ACCIDENTS TO KELLY'S CARS.

About 6 o'clock this morning Manager Kelly's car No. 34 of the Eighth street line took a header across the street at the junction of Fruitvale avenue and Hopkins street. Fortunately no passengers were aboard, possibly because the people prefer walking to taking the perilous chances of a car ride.

The car was pretty badly wrecked. The accident was caused by the failure to shut the electric current off in time when the car reached the end of the track.

On Tuesday morning, before daylight, car No. 6 of the Eighth avenue line crashed into a flat car belonging to the Transit system on Fifth avenue, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, and was disabled, being badly shattered. The passengers aboard narrowly saved themselves from death or injury by jumping. Motorman Shannon claimed that it was so dark he could not see the flat car, which had been stopped on the main track by reason of being disabled. The crew of the flat car were underneath trying to patch it into running order when No. 6 butted into it. It is said that no light was displayed on the flat car. Division Superintendent McLenagan put the blame on Shannon, but the General Manager reinstated him after a thorough investigation which disclosed that the flat car men were in fault.

TRANSIT CAR RUN INTO A BRIDGE GATE.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 9.—Yesterday afternoon an Oakland Transit car on the Alameda line ran into and smashed one of the iron gates on the Webster street bridge. The accident will cost the county $25. It was a case of gross carelessness.

DIETZ VAUDEVILLE HOUSE.

Dietz Vaudeville House, under the ownership of Owen, Greene & Co., gave a performance on a last night to a full house. The first program of what is known as "amateur night" was given. After the professional stars had done their turns, the amateurs were given the stage. They sang and danced and did it in such a manner as to convulse the audience. The management is greatly pleased with the result. The professional performers will appear every night this week.

PECK'S THEATER.

The popularity of Peck's Broadway Theater is on a plane of steadiness which is gratifying to the management. Many people are taking advantage of the afternoon performances to while away the hours and give the children a little diversion. The price of admission is only ten cents and there is no person who does not feel that the specialties produced are more than worth the money.

ESTATE OF H. CORDES WHO WAS DYNAMITED

The estate of Herman Cordes, the aged pioneer of Alameda who was blown into eternity, about a year ago, by dynamite in his eucalyptus oil distillery on Blanding avenue, has been appraised at $124,515. It was inventoried as comprising $38,890 received from the administrator of the estate of Herman Cordes Jr., money from the administrator of the estate of Anna A. Cordes, a daughter, $576.50; household furniture at 1216 Post street, $200, which is now near foreclosure; and the oil distilling plant, Blanding avenue near Park street, $50.

KEATING'S EXECUTOR DENIES CLAIM.

John W. Slaven, executor of the will of the late well known horseman, Thomas E. Keating, has filed an answer to the amended complaint of J. R. Hodson, who seeks to recover $487 for photographs of the horseman and his celebrated flyers which, he alleges, he took when Keating was still a leader among horse trainers. He denies that Keating ever ordered or ever accepted the pictures in question, as also that Dodson ever furnished them to the horseman. He also asserts that the claim is barred by the statute of limitations.

NEW TRIAL WANTED IN THE MARTIN CASE.

In the damage case of Susan Martin et al against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, plaintiff's motion for a new trial has been submitted to the Court with the stipulation that the attorneys for the defendant have twenty days in which to reply. A. A. Moore represents the defendant and Vogel-sang & Brown and W. W. Foote, the plaintiffs.

VAGRANTS FILLING THE COUNTY JAIL.

The activity of the police in running down vagrants is filling the County Jail at a very rapid rate. Yesterday and today brought eighteen vagrants to the bastille, making the total number 33. Only a few more guests can be accommodated without crowding the jail to suffocation.

MICROBES ASSAILED IN JUDGE OGDEN'S COURT.

The old and sudden carpet in Judge Ogdén's court room is being renovated and a determined effort is being made against the future activity of the microbes which have germinated in it.

DECLARED TO BE INSANE.

Mrs. Alice Cannigan, who made an attack upon Mrs. Henry W. Gutte of Alameda with a butcher knife, a few days ago, was committed to the insane asylum at Napa by Judge Melvin and a commission consisting of Drs. Pratt and Wilcox. The woman has been detained for some time but it is only of late that she has become dangerous to be at liberty.

BRAVE ACT OF A LONGSHOREMAN.

Walter Kent, 15 years of age, while suffering from an epileptic fit yesterday afternoon, fell off the Broadway wharf into Oakland harbor, and was rescued from drowning by courageous John Vance, a longshoreman.

Kent lives at Twenty-third street and Telegraph avenue and he was strolling near the edge of the wharf when the epileptic attack seized him. He lost his balance and fell overboard. His rescuer, Vance, worked nobly to save the man's life. Kent was given treatment at the Receiving Hospital and then removed to his home.

LARGE ENTERTAINMENT BY THE GAELIC LEADERS.

An impetus was given last night to the study of the Gaelic tongue in this city by an entertainment which was given in the hall of the school adjoining St. Francis de Sales Church. There was a large attendance, a number of sympathizers with the move having come from San Francisco for the purpose of being present.

The leading feature of the evening, from an intellectual standpoint, was the address in Gaelic by Professor M. O'Mahoney of San Francisco, who will become instructor in the Gaelic language on this side of the bay. His address was afterwards translated into English.

An address was also made in Irish by Martin Ward of San Francisco. There was also dancing and musical exercises, all of which were highly entertaining. The dancing was directed by J. F. Keelher, who participated in the eight-band reel, hornpipe, high gail cap and jig were Miss J. Egan, Miss B. Egan, Miss Emily Doyle, Miss Maggie Allen, Joseph J. Keelher, Mr. O'Connor, Patrick Lynch, William Murphy. The jig dancing of Miss O'Connor and Keelher was greatly appreciated.

Vocal musical numbers in English were rendered by Miss Catherine Silver, Miss Maude King and Miss Rose Walsh, and Gaelic music was given by Professors D'Arcy and McMahon of San Francisco.

COMPANY F HOLDS AN ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The Second Battalion of the Fifth Regiment, U. S. C., Major Paulier commanding, composed of Companies A, F and G, has been ordered to San Francisco Sunday to attend the funeral of General Scammons. The battalion will leave on the 8:15 train that morning.

An election for Captain of Company F was held at the Armory Monday evening under the supervision of Lieutenant Colonel John F. Hayes. First Lieutenant Col. W. H. Keating was elected to the vacancy. Second Lieutenant Nickerson was elected First Lieutenant, and Private L. Moran was elected Second Lieutenant.

At the annual target practice for field and staff officers, which was held at the High street range, Alameda, the shooting was with revolvers at fifty yards. The following officers made an average of 46 and over and are entitled to the championship: Lieutenant Colonel J. F. Hayes, Major Chas. T. Paulier, Lieutenant D. Strong, Lieutenant E. H. Pearce.

AN ALAMEDA WOMAN KILLED IN THE SOUTH.

A dispatch from San Diego says: Mrs. G. A. Kincaid of Alameda was the victim of a fatal accident near the Mexican line at Tia Juana Monday evening. Mrs. Kincaid was here on a visit in company with her daughter, Mrs. Lave, and with Mr. and Mrs. Hausen, tourists from the East, planned a trip to Mexico Monday. The party made the trip in a trolley, going some distance into Mexico and returning late in the afternoon. When passing the slaughter house at Tia Juana the horses became frightened and the trolley started to run away. The members of the party thought to save themselves by jumping, and all landed safely except Mrs. Kincaid, who tripped on the side of the vehicle and landed on her head.

Yesterday Mrs. Kincaid was brought to a sanitarium here, where it was found that her skull was crushed and that there had been a hemorrhage of the brain. The operation of trephining was performed in the afternoon and considerable blood was removed, but Mrs. Kincaid died at 10 o'clock last night.

GREENUP WILL BE TAKEN TO SACRAMENTO.

Roy Greenup, the lad who was brought to the County Jail from Alameda because of malicious mischief, was discharged on his own recogniance at the instance of Justice Morris. The lad's mother says she will move to Sacramento and will take her boy with her.

BISHOP GOES TO PRISON

Robert Bishop, the aged saloon and hotelman who was convicted of trying to burn his place of business in Golden Gate, two years ago, was taken to San Quentin today by Jailer Louis Schou-eau, where he will serve six years for crime. Bishop lost his appeal to the Supreme Court, and the two years he has spent in jail here will not be deducted from his term of imprisonment.

DEATH OF MRS. HARRIS.

Judge H. A. Melvin has been notified of the death of Mrs. Ella Harris, which took place on December 30th of last year in Reading, Pennsylvania. The deceased was the wife of John W. Harris, who was head consul of the Modern Woodmen of this State before his removal to Pennsylvania.
